Gravestele fotografierede van de toevluchteling - Major Hospital site in the Ypres Salient - Le plus grand site hospitalier

The site was one of the largest and most important of the Ypres Salient. It was the site of the largest hospital in the area, the Major Hospital, which was built in 1915. The site was used as a hospital until 1920, when it was abandoned. The site is now a memorial to the soldiers who died there.
